EXPECTED PRACTICES

American Correctional Association (ACA) Expected Practices: 5-ACI-1C-06

PURPOSE

This Department Order establishes a standard for the Department to ensure qualified persons are recruited, selected and employed.

APPLICABILITY

This Department Order is not applicable to private prisons. Private prisons shall adhere to the Equal Opportunity requirements of their contract.

This Department Order does not create a contract for employment between any employee and the Department. This Department Order does not change the fact that all uncovered employees of the Department are at-will employees and serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority.

PROCEDURES

1.0 DEVELOPMENT OF THE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY PLAN – The Equal Opportunity Officer shall, in consultation with the Employee Relations Manager and Executive Staff, update and maintain the Department's Equal Opportunity Plan.

2.0 COMPLIANCE WITH THE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY PLAN

2.1 The Deputy Director, Assistant Directors, Regional Operations Directors, Wardens, Deputy Wardens, Administrators, Bureau Administrators and Hiring Authorities shall:

2.1.1 Ensure all personnel transactions are based upon the principles outlined in Arizona Revised Statute (A.R.S) §41-742, without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, age, disability, genetic information, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy, military or veteran status, or any other status protected by federal law, state law or regulation, except when one of these has been identified by the Employment Unit as an existing bona fide occupational qualification. {5-ACI-1C-06}

2.1.1.1 When deficiencies are identified regarding the employment of minority groups and women at a particular location, the Employee Relations/Equal Opportunity Unit can document the implementation of an affirmative employment program that is approved by the Deputy Director and can document annual reviews and the changes needed to keep the program current.

2.1.2 Apply exceptions in the selection of employees in certain covered and uncovered positions when necessary and reasonable to do so in compliance with the Department's Equal Opportunity Plan.

2.1.3 Comply with hiring and promotion goals outlined in the Department's Equal Opportunity Plan.
